

A Nightingale Sang In Berkeley Square

That certain night, the night we met,

There was magic abroad in the air;

There were angels dining at the Ritz

And a nightingale sang in Berkeley Square.

I may be right, I may be wrong,
But I'm perfectly willing to swear
That when you turned and smiled at me

A nightingale sang in Berkeley Square.

*: The moon that lingered over London town --

Poor, puzzled moon, he wore a frown.

How could he know we two were so in love
Bmi Gdimi Ami7 D
The whole darn world seemed upside down.

The streets of town were paved with stars,
It was such a romantic affair.
And as we kissed and said "Good-bye,"
A nightingale sang in Berkeley Square.

How strange it was, how sweet and strange;
There was never a dream to compare
With that hazy, crazy night we met
When a nightingale sang in Berkeley Square.

This heart of mine beat loud and fast,
Like a merry go round at the fair;
For we were dancing cheek to cheek
And a nightingale sang in Berkeley Squire.

```
*: When dawn came stealing up all gold and blue
   To interrupt our rendezvous,
   I still remember how you smiled and said,
   "Was that a dream or was it true?"
```

Our homeward step was just as light
As the tap-dancing feet of Astaire
 And like an echo, far away,
 G Emi Ami7 D7 G Emi
 A nightingale sang in Berkeley Square.

I know 'cause I was there

That night in Berkeley Square.
