

Better Get It Right

Natalie

Hey... oh... yeah... (better get it right) Oh... oh... yeah... (better get it right)

Better get it right
don't wanna be your part time lover
better get it right
if you want my love for sure
better get it right
Don't wanna be another number cause you and me go together boy

You know I make it right for you because I certainly adore you I got your back, you notice that,
I'm holding it down (for you) I'm always here when you need me I give the best to my baby I get it right, I'm morning light, baby can you feel me

I really wanna be your only
I'm not just trying to be your homie and you could be the one to hold me when I'm lonely inside you could be the one to touch me and you could be the one to love me and you could be the one to kiss me get it right, yeah

Better get it right
don't wanna be your part time lover
better get it right
if you want my love for sure
better get it right
Don't wanna be another number
cause you and me go together boy

I give you all of my sweetness it's sad to say you're my weakness I give it up, all that I have so everything is for you if I could be the only girl we can get it right I'm telling you boy right now just let me be the one

Better get it right
don't wanna be your part time lover
better get it right
if you want my love for sure
better get it right
Don't wanna be another number

You got issues cuz I make pimp moves and I break yo heart

and you need tissues cuz I make you cry and I know you try you say bye-bye can't lie I die and now my situation in the air like a pop fly should you let go or should you hold on one day
I promise Imma put a smile on yo face I left a trace of my cologne on your pillow case you wanna teach and I gotta get money from dishin and your broken heart needs a' fixin' but you don't super woman xray vision you look inside me and see my mission to get it right

I really wanna be your only
I'm not just trying to be your homie
and you could be the one to hold me while I'm lonely inside (yeah)
you could be the one to touch me
and you could be the one to love me
and you could be the one to kiss me
get it right, yeah

Better get it right
don't wanna be your part time lover
better get it right
if you want my love for sure
better get it right
Don't wanna be another number
