

I Don't Think Of You

Natural

well hello, can't believe you recognized my voice Traces of sleep, blur your words
Sorry it's late but I had no choice
Last night I dreamed, we were Lovers, once again
I holding you in my arms
Woke up crying out your name

I don't think of you except when morning
breaks
Like a fire across the sky
I don't think of you
Till I feel this ache
Hit m somewhere deep inside
I don't think of you
If I call your name
in the arms of someone new, it's not
what it seems
'Cause I don't think of you

I'm doing fine, yes I know It's been a long, long time
You say you've changed, well so have I just needed to know if you're alright

I know it's too much to expect that we'd be friends
But after all the love we made
I had to hear your voice again

breaks
Like a fire across the sky
I don't think of you
Till I feel this ache
Hit m somewhere deep inside
I don't think of you
If I call your name
'Cause I don't think of you

I'm never looking back
I'm living for today
I don't wanna know if you think of me when a sad song starts to play

Like a fire across the sky
I don't think of you
Till I feel this ache
I don't think of you

I don't think of you except when the morning
breaks
Like fire across the sky
I don't think of you
Till I feel this ache
Hit me somewhere deep inside
I don't think of you
If I call your name
I don't think of you
I don't think of you
I don't think of you

Well hello, can't believe u recognized my voice
