

Perfect Man

NB Ridaz

[Say:]

(Special dedication to all the ladies out there in this whole world looking for that perfect man.)

[Chorus - Angelina:]

When I was a little girl,
I would sit and dream,
Hopin' I would find,
Find that perfect man
Now that I can see,
True reality
Tear drops from my eyes,
Cause there is no Perfect man

[Verse 1:]

It seems like everyone in this world is lookin for perfection
But how do we find something that doesn't exist?
Know what I'm sayin'? mamasita
I would give my life for you, no matter what the Situation last days of hope, trials and tribulations
Frustrations, killin every woman and man
If you can see what I see, then you might
Understand that I could never be a perfect man,
Up in this chaos a soul, with a musical
Dream like armadias
I've given everything, sweat, blood 'n tears
And made a vow to the lord to stay for a million
Years I guess too much is never enough,
When the silence in our souls begins to erupt
So forgive me girl, if I ruined your plan
Cause I can only try, but never be a perfect man

[Chorus - Angelina:]

When I was a little girl,
I would sit and dream,
Hopin' I would find,
Find the perfect man
Now that I can see,
True reality
Tear drops from my eyes,
Cause there is no Perfect man
(Yeah dedicated to my little girl, daddy loves you Deja.)

[Verse 2:]

11/98, God blessed me with a perfect baby girl,
Such imperfect world,
I cried when she took her first breath
Why God? when the world is filled with hate and disease
Most fought over seas, and weather catastrophes,
Fall into this new millennium,
She'll be one and a half, too young to Understand and lord know, this man and
His lives aren't perfect,
My mistakes saw her learnin' points
Hopin she can learn from them
So many caught up
In the fast lane

Lovers of themselves greed or lust
Her little hand guidance, man
Her little heart, holdin on my trust
I'm at awe with my destiny
I can't believe I'm staring gods master piece
Face to face, you'll never
Understand how much you've changed this man
Who has to learn from scratch.
On how to raise a woman
Cause if perfection is needed, I guarantee to be Everything she dreams

[Chorus - Angelina:]

When I was a little girl,
I would sit and dream,
Hopin' I would find,
Find the perfect man
Now that I can see, (yea)
True reality (this goes out... to the girl that I love)
Tear drops fill from my eyes, (I love you baby... best believe that)
Cause there is no Perfect man

[Verse 3:]

There's been some time with me, you were still shinin'
Who'd imagine, it'd be you I'd be findin'
Some one so real, who took care 'my heart
Anybody, if they'd try, couldn't 'pull us apart
You were there from day one, til this present time
Working hard for the money when I couldn't get mine
You should be the definition of what love really is
I know every man wish their girl was like this
I put you through some things,
Best believe that I'm sorry
My love goes out to you, no one fits your category
You don't 'talk back, and respect what I say.
Independent, strong woman
No time for child's play
Deserve more than I got
And you still stick around
I'm not the perfect man
But for you, I'll bow down.
I wanna be your man til the lord takes us to the clouds.
Ain't no perfect man, but perfect women are around...

[Chorus - Angelina:]

When I was a little girl,
I would sit and dream,
Hopin' I would find,
Find the perfect man
Now that I can see,
True reality
Tear drops fill from my eyes,
Cause there is no Perfect man
