Hope we always feel like

Waking up and looking back at my heart that was distracted
This song I see
I hope it's not blurry when I look back at it later
I want to know how to color it dark
I don't need to know already
I still can't believe it
I see the window of the car we used to ride together
Everything around is
Looking like a blur just like the outside, movements are fast
I guess at one point we followed the speed of the car
But honestly I think I've stopped in the past
That time will always be that time, hope it never fades out

To an unrecognizable look as we go down our own road
Our gazes may reach each other one day
Even if it's in silence, our voices will reach each other
We will worry about each other like always

Don't forget we are in touch
Always in the same time, the same place, we were always together
We don't have the courage
The words we couldn't speak, the words we couldn't deliver

Just don't forget this
One night, far from now
There will be a star that will lift your spirits
That star will be me

You exist
The scale of the size nobody will understand
Other than us
In my heart

I'll be your home
Ooh oooh I'll be your home

I'll take you back home
I'll take you back
We will go around and around
I know this will be a memory not a reminiscence
The apologetic, regretful thoughts linger, the longing
That we didn't realize because we were so used to it lingers
I know the time will tell
You know, we will always walk, following the star
We were someone's dream, we don't forget each other
You must know that
I am always by your side

I believe that sometimes, when a reality is a dream
I worry about the seagull that always laughed for us
Even if we're on the same boat, we are on a different ocean
But I will continue to always be the lighthouse
You can rely on
Yeah this is fate and that's a fact
When it's too hard, I will be your green light
Tell me after you deeply treasure the delighted feeling
Feel like what
We gon stay

Do you remember what I said
Every night long time ago
The compass I saw in my dreams
I know now that it's you

Now that time passed, you were so young
But you were so big
That side of you
Gives me strength

I'll be your home

This is only one part of something passing
You can write this down, I believe you will pass on, this bookmark
It's more natural if you leave it to the flow
But I don't want this to sound like
We're about to depart
If I ever get lost
I wasn't going to make it obvious
Imma call back
Don't forget the tone I called you

Chant it like we always did
Hope we always feel like
