Baby I don't want nobody but you

Ho, ho, wake me up,
Thirsty, thirsty for love
Wake me, wake me up,
Thirsty, thirsty
(Yeah, yeah, it's you)

The dream that shook up my world last night

Was it a nightmare, am I still in that dream?
Following the light that pulled me, I'm in a maze
There, I discovered another passage
The space is opening from the bottom up
A persistent call inside a strange darkness
Then I saw you, who resembles me
I'm you and you're me

I'm following the light and sound
That knocks and wakes me up
I felt shivers, I finally realized

Oh baby it's you
It's only the beginning, the limitless me
From the start of the East to the end of the West
The light gets stronger
As it spreads through the darkness
Open your eyes
My song is getting louder
Did you see? That hot and explosive world?
Can you hear? We have become one
Baby I don't want nobody but you

Ho, ho, wake me up,
Thirsty, thirsty for love
Wake me, wake me up,
Thirsty, thirsty

They were all chasing dreams while being deceived
Most of them only consider themselves as the real deal
Or else they hide with their backs turned
The repeating days are so cruel

Lies stick, they are sticky
In this gray city, it ain't got a chance
I wondered when the future was gonna come
But it's in front of my eyes now

A short but strong blue
Light (light)
My seventh sense has awakened (sense)
One becomes two and sometimes becomes 100
The hardened world becomes flexible

Change the heavy world (change)
Look how free we are, so free
Inside, only you are allowed (allowed)
The one to take my heart, that is you

I need a connection, I want it like crazy
I need you
I need something to make us feel each other completely
I need you

Oh baby it's you
It's only the beginning, the limitless me
From the start of the East to the end of the West
The light gets stronger
As it spreads through the darkness
Open your eyes
My song is getting louder
Did you see? That hot and explosive world?
Can you hear? We have become one

Baby I don't want nobody but you

Help me so I can do well
Sometimes, I get lost
Eventually, we are all connected
You know this
Like finding a big ocean
At the end of a desert
Your existence is limitless

Oh baby it's you
It's only the beginning, the limitless me
From the start of the East to the end of the West
The light gets stronger
As it spreads through the darkness
Open your eyes
My song is getting louder
Did you see? That hot and explosive world?
Can you hear? We have become one
Baby I don't want nobody but you

Ho, ho, wake me up,
Thirsty, thirsty for love
Wake me, wake me up,
Thirsty, thirsty
(Yeah, yeah, it's you)
