Ya gimme that nectar
Escaping this hazy night
And I'm thirsting alone
Gimme that nectar
Gimme that gimme that gimme that
Gimme that nectar
As you push the dark clouds aside
You'll clearly see the moon within my heart
Gimme that nectar
Gimme that gimme that gimme that

The changing phases of the moon is an omen Orbiting around the world, chop chop chop This dance of uncovering your veil, tik tok tok I'm lost within you, in this ice-cold gloss Following the ways of the moon, I'm reluctant to chase As I run towards the silver-white lines of longitude In this planet cramped by the tides I'm looking for the tempo of this dream

This wishful line of sight, you know, you know
Endless warmth, we know, we know
Even if the whole world forgets
I'll still exist here
I'm obsessed with your bright, moon-like spirit, ok

Ya gimme that nectar
Escaping this hazy night
And I'm thirsting alone
Gimme that nectar
Gimme that gimme that gimme that
Gimme that nectar
As you push the dark clouds aside
You'll clearly see the moon within my heart
Gimme that nectar
Gimme that gimme that gimme that

Dancing in the moonlight alone alone Til the end of time
Gimme that gimme that gimme that
Dancing in the moonlight alone alone
No rest under the moonlight
Gimme that gimme that gimme that

The pure-white moon
Is just like a busy dreamscape
In the past and present
All signs still point to you
The bearings of the half-moon in the sky
Reflect the beauty in your eyes
Under the faint light, we flow together rhythmically
Facing against the world's darkness

This wishful line of sight, you know, you know
Endless warmth, we know, we know
Even if the whole world forgets
I'll still exist here
I'm obsessed with your bright, moon-like spirit, ok

Ya gimme that nectar Escaping this hazy night And I'm thirsting alone Gimme that nectar

Gimme that gimme that gimme that

Gimme that nectar

As you push the dark clouds aside

You'll clearly see the moon within my heart

Gimme that nectar

Gimme that gimme that gimme that

As the moon hands in the past and present's sky Lighting up a billion nights of darkness I'll let the moonlight bring me to your side

Ya gimme that nectar
Escaping this hazy night
And I'm thirsting alone
Gimme that nectar
Gimme that gimme that gimme that
Gimme that nectar
As you push the dark clouds aside
You'll clearly see the moon within my heart
Gimme that nectar
Gimme that gimme that gimme that

Dancing in the moonlight alone alone Til the end of time
Gimme that gimme that gimme that
Dancing in the moonlight alone alone
No rest under the moonlight
Gimme that gimme that gimme that
