The Ancients Gate

Necrophobic

"Let them curse it, that curse the day who are skilful to rouse Leviathan"

Cursed one, son of darkness Hear the call beyond the gate Open the book of human flesh The daemons on the other side awaits Summon the evil forces of the seven lords Secret seal before your eyes Call forth the evil gods

Hear the prayers Master of spells pass through the gate Bring the world tremendous evil Realm of chaos awaits Lords of desolation See the revelations across the blackened sky Break the curse Immortal ones pass through the ancients gate

Worshipper of darkness Enchanter of the evil one Beyond the stars lies the gate Eternally locked from inside Gaze at the engraved cryptogram The diabolic sign of entrance The key to the realm of evil gods From where the sinful souls shall depart

Master - open the gate of entrance Reveal the concealed forces of the astral lords Master - hear the eternal cries From the dwelling daemons at the other side
