The bridge, we'll build it now It may take a lot of time And it maybe lonely but Ooh baby, ooh baby.

The bridge was falling down And that took a lot of lies And it made me lonely Ooh baby, ooh baby.

The bridge was falling. The bridge was falling. The bridge was falling.

One day, when you talked to me I saw myself again And it made me love you. Ooh baby, ooh baby.

And love came running down Like a river on your skin And you let me in. Ooh babe, ooh babe.

You let me in You let me in You let me in

The bridge, we'll build it now It may take a lot of time.
