My true love drowned in a dirty old pan Of oil that did run from the block Of a falcon sedan 1969
The paper said '75
There were no survivors
None found alive

Trees break the sidewalk

And the sidewalk skins my knees

There's glass in my thermos

And blood on my jeans

Nickels and dimes of the fourth of July

Roll off in a crooked line

To the chain-link lots where the red tails dive

Oh how I forgot what it's like

[Chorus:]

Hey when she sings, when she sings when she sings like she runs

Hey when she moves, when she moves like she runs

Hey when she moves, when she moves when she moves like she runs $Moves\ like\ she\ runs$

Hey there there's such deadly wolves 'round town tonight Round the town tonight

Hey there there's such deadly wolves 'round town tonight Round the town tonight

Hey pretty baby get high with me,
We can go to my sisters if we say we'll watch the baby"
The look on your face yanks my neck on the chain
And I would do anything
To see you again

So I've fallen behind:

[Chorus]

Go on, go on scream and cry
You're miles from where anyone will find you
This is nothing new, no television crew
They don't even put on the sirens
My nightgown sweeps the pavement
Please don't let him die

Oh how I forgot...
