

Let's Get Fucked

Nekrogoblikon

everyone gets restless, and all things must pass moderation is a fallacy dead! it's what we're gonna be we will not obey your ego trip we will not respect your authority we won't comply with your status quo we will never accept your reality an empire built on petty theft and now you cling to nothing like a puppet master, but all that's left are the strings attached did you really expect that we'd believe in your falsified idolatry? the tides will shift and the sand will fall but you've got no right to have us all they will not hold us down they'll never succeed; they're born of greed never thought a little gimmick such as this would go so well why does god hate only me? they'll be laughing they'll be dancing 'cause the world is going this is the end of infinity we do not curtsy before your illusion we do not validate your exclusion so why deny the thriving hive mind? you can no longer control us a pompous way of life gone by we know it was there but can't remember why from this perspective, it all just seems so trivial and complex some propaganda memoranda fascist days of future's past would never last

everything is just a joke, hold the phone it cannot be, it won't be allowed to enact the rites, they must be sung in a moment we'll all be one you had your time and you squeezed it dry now you're off the throne and you don't know why you were so fair,

you were so kind,
you were oh so honest.
LIES!

you were trading souls for paper, raping hopes and chasing favor selling prophecies of gold scratched on thrown-out cardboard well now it's time to meet the maker, you had hope, but now it's wavered you've got nothing you can keep

let's get a party goin' (get a goblin party goin') we don't need your opinion to have fun let's get a party goin' (get a goblin party goin') we will never respect you, ya got that?
if not, then why did you come?
life is a joke, so let's have fun we'll find a way to corrupt this too cause that's what time is meant to do try not to think, but try to do and let's enjoy it while it lasts
