Nekrogoblikon

DIE!!

they've finally got the book what a glorious day things are going their way enraptured lost in the pages inked in blood & bound with the ages searching for the passage that they need hope is fading fast there is oh so much to read will they ever make it past the sleeve?
as their eyes begin to bleed; they see the symbols in between

YES!!!

these are the words
we've found the passage in the sacred book the celebration's in full swing 1, 2, 3 cheers for the goblin king wait, stop the press, double-check the page it says we need a band, to take the stage to enact the rites, they must be sung the band we need is Nekrogoblikon a rag-tag bunch of hideous scum ...they're already on the way they found a way

they found a way
we'll never see
another day
they found the magic Nekrogoblikon!
and it all ends
as it begins
infinity repeats again
they found the magic Nekrogoblikon!

we've got to get the loudest guitars the loudest drums crank those microphones if your ears aren't bleeding, you're doing it wrong we could also try a keyboard and maybe a bass we'll set a stage up on the moon the rites require ample space

...PLAY!!

we are Nekrogoblikon we've come a long long way just to play you this song they stacked the deck against us, but we learned to count the cards they wanted to destroy us, now let's send them our regards well now it's over the show is done

it'd be a lie to say that we didn't have fun we've laughed, we've cried, and now we'll die (I guess)
we'll see you on the other side...

they found the magic Nekrogoblikon!
they found the magic Nekrogoblikon!
