

The End of Infinity

Nekrogoblikon

babies, children, women and men get ready to implode on the count of ten one two ten pulled together from every direction as we penetrate reality there's no protection death to the minister and death to the scum death to Satan holy father and the sun none shall be spared including ourselves goblin immortality invalidating time well spent well we're sick of it, sick to death doesn't matter if it's right, cause it's all we got left it's time for space and time to go the black hole sucks cause reality blows no distinction; you and me this is the end of infinity hope you had a decent life hope your burdens didn't weigh you down too much hope you let the bygones by hope you didn't take no crap hope you lived with no regrets and had good luck hope you got to say goodbye hope you realized that hope is just a lie a forgotten ideal from a time when life meant more more than four on the floor, designer booze and whores but really, it couldn't matter less it's time for space and time to go
so cry no more and have some fun in a moment we'll all be one
no distinction; you and me
into the whirlpool of the void we are all drawn we've had enough of nothing now everything will be gone it's time for space and time to go
ooh goodbye now the necessary preparations are made the goblins are enjoying a massive parade and everything that's always held them down is over
NOW
the spiral is unravelling feathered ends ignite witness the end of infinity tonight

so cry no more and have some fun in a moment we'll all be one no distinction; you and me
this is the end of infinity wanna see you smile don't wanna see you frown because eventually it comes back around but let's just pretend, because until then this is the end of infinity
