

Something

Nelly Furtado

Can't start a fire without a flame
Can't play the part without a game
Can't feel the love without the pain
Can't talk to me if you talk the same

Baby I can give you something
Baby I can give you something
Baby I can give you something
Baby I can give you something

Can't have a drink without a well
Can't fall asleep without a spell
Can't feel the wind without a kite
Can't back your bags without the eyes

Baby I can give you something
Baby I can give you something
Baby I can give you something
Baby I can give you something

Time for the shades on, on, shot glass
Fly eyes, pretty smile, plus she got glass
I'ma show you a little something,
But here's a preview when I,
She's hot, like liquid metal when
Red carpet and ghetto
Baby I'm nasty Nas, I just had to meet you
Just watch that back with a glass

Baby I can give you something
Baby I can give you something
Baby I can give you something
Baby I can give you something
