

Dance in the Fire

Nemesea

You, you say your arms will survive.
But your battalion is outnumbered, are you blind?
It's time, to open up your eyes
The wolves are howling, yet you stay in line.

Don't lick your wounds before it's over,
'Cause I'm letting the phoenix go.

Come and dance, come and dance in the fire
Let's embrace your destiny
Come and dance, come and dance in the fire
Cauterise your wounds, and be a leader to the light

Come and dance, come and dance in the fire
Come and dance in the fire tonight

Relax, the future will unfold,
Just realise your shrapnel's made of gold.
Hey! Does it hurt to lie?
'Cause when you refuse to fight, you choose to die.

Don't lick your wounds, we'll cast that over,
'Cause I'm letting the phoenix go!

Come and dance, come and dance in the fire
Let's embrace your destiny
Come and dance, come and dance in the fire
Cauterise your wounds, and be a leader to the light

Come and dance, come and dance in the fire
Come and dance in the fire tonight

War
Lost
Fire
Dust

War
Fire
Dust

War
Fire
Dust

Come and dance, come and dance in the fire
Let's embrace your destiny
Come and dance, come and dance in the fire
Cauterise your wounds, and be a leader to the light

Come and dance, come and dance in the fire
Come and dance, come and dance in the fire!
