

Sayonara

Nemesea

It must have been some kind of sin
Not worth retrieving
It's time to learn and let it burn
'Till nothings left
I went astray counting the days
While i was grieving

Why should i wait and hesitate
I can't believe it
Don't lock me up, don't put me down
'Cause it ain't right
I cannot wait for walls to break
Let's stop deceiving

Sayonara, sayonara!
I need to let it go, let it go
Sayonara, sayonara!
It's time to let it go, let it go all the way

My fallen tears, bring back the years
I couldn't see it
The darkness ruled, was on my knees
Too weak to fight
I wouldn't leave, i couldn't stay
Just kept on breathing

Hide my pride
Just stopped delivering
All faith was lost and gone
Ignored the signs too many times
And now i feel it...

Sayonara, sayonara!
I need to let it go, let it go
Sayonara, sayonara!
It's time to let it go, let it go all the way

It must have been some kind of sin
Not worth retrieving
It's time to learn and let it burn
I went astray counting the days
I stopped believing...

Sayonara, sayonara!
I need to let it go, let it go
Sayonara, sayonara!
It's time to let it go, let it go all the way
