

As everything and anything just fades
Do you wish your life would go another way?
When I grew up I thought I'd be a 99-piece symphony
But I'm whistling in the wilderness alone

I close my eyes and dare to hope
That I'm gonna bloom
Know that we'll do it, too
I'm gonna bloom
There's nothing that I can't do
It's never too late
Never too late to bloom

When winter came we slept the season through
In barren lands all given to the gloom
With healthy hearts we persevered and made it through another year
Adapting to the promises we broke

We close our eyes and dare to hope
That we're gonna bloom
We know that we'll do it, too
We're gonna bloom
There's nothing that we can't do
We know what we are
We know what we're not
It's never too late
It's never too late to bloom

Come on and bloom now

The whole world's looking over your shoulder
The whole world's looking out for you
The whole world's looking over your shoulder
Wondering what you're gonna do

We close our eyes and dare to hope
That we're gonna bloom
Know that we'll do it too
We're gonna bloom
There's nothing that we can't do
We know what we are
We know what we're not
It's never too late
To love what you've got
It's never too late
Never too late to bloom
Come on, come on, come on, come on, and bloom
Come on, come on, come on, come on, let's bloom
