

Here is blue, here is gold
Down that river I've been sold
It's something that I can't contain
I feel it coursing through my veins

Prettiest bird in all of the world's at my window
Prettiest bird in all of the world's at my window

Beauty made my heart a liar
I'm a cold conceit and I see fire
I should just live well alone
But I can't, no, I can't, and I won't

Prettiest bird in all of the world's at my window, oh
The prettiest bird in all of the world, in all of the world, ye ah

I can give life and watch something grow
Like Juno, like Juno
Breathe into him and watch something grow
Like Juno, like Juno
Juno

The prettiest bird in all the world
He the prettiest bird in all the world
He the prettiest bird in all the world
The prettiest bird in all the world
The prettiest bird in all the world
He the prettiest bird in all the world, yeah, yeah, yeah
