

The Road

Nerina Pallot

He came into this world naked and alone
He came out of the darkness and the darkness was his home.
Maybe it's for praise, maybe it's for blame
Maybe in the sound and fury, glory was his name

But he don't follow, he don't follow
He don't follow, no he walks this road alone
But he don't follow, he don't follow
He don't follow, no he walks this road alone

And every single day is leading to the line
You keep on to the end of it, keep reading all the signs.
People they want money, people they want bones
People? They got lots of questions for a man who dares alone.

But you don't follow, you don't follow
You don't follow, no you walk this road alone
But you don't follow, you don't follow
You don't follow, you just walk this road alone

You just keep your eyes on the prize
Keep your eyes on the prize, you keep your eyes on the prize
Right on it.
You just keep your eyes on the prize, you keep your eyes on the prize
You keep your eyes on the prize.

No you don't follow, you don't follow
You don't follow, no you walk this road alone
You don't follow, you don't follow
You don't follow, no you walk this road alone
You don't follow, you don't follow
You don't follow, no you walk this road alone
You don't follow, you don't follow
You don't follow, no you walk this road alone
You don't follow, you don't follow
You don't follow, no you walk this road alone
You don't follow, you don't follow
You don't follow, you just walk this road alone
