

Illusion Of Home

Neuroticfish

Let us burn your bridges.
I'll give you all you need.
Let's take off and leave it all for good.
I'll catch you if you stumble.
I'll hold you if you fall.
No need to cry, you will be understood.

Give me the illusion of home.
A feeling that I'll never be alone.
When the night has come
I'll close the doors
and you don't have to leave no more.
Give me the illusion of home.

Tell me all your secrets.
I'll keep them close to mine.
Let me show you what it's all about.
I understand you're angry.
But this will fade away.
Time will heal the wounds
that make you shout.
