

Suffocating Right

Neuroticfish

From beneath the bedroom floor
It is hunting me
Silent clicking of the door
And it sucks me in

Was I right to overstep the border
That leads me to this place?
Was I right ignoring all the warning signs
Accepting to fall from grace?

Am I suffocating right?
Is there anybody watching?
Is there anything outside
That might keep me here?

Am I suffocating right?
Is there anybody listening?
Is there anything inside
That can stop me here?

From behind the bedroom door
It is calling me
A silence never felt before
And I am stuck right in

Was I right to overstep the thin line
That keeps me from this place?
Was I right rejecting all the spoken words
Ignoring to fall from grace?

Am I suffocating right?
Is there anybody watching?
Is there anything outside
That might keep me here?

Am I suffocating right?
Is there anybody listening?
Is there anything inside
That can stop me here?
