

I never see you when you're smiling
Look down on what you've down
Feeling guilt from what they've taken
From you and when you were young
Holding back your tears from crying
They been frozen now for years
Let it out and be happy
Your therapy

Time for music
I'm feeling your reflection
I'm always in the way
Time for music
I'm feeling your reflection
I'm always in the way

Your hands are always shaking
Things bottles up inside
Sometimes you're close to breaking
That go back and hide
The nights are lately friendly
You've seen yourself in bed
Let it go and get happy
Your therapy

Time for music
I'm feeling your reflection
I'm always in the way
Time for music
I'm feeling your reflection
I'm always in the way

All I every hear you say
Is that you're always in the way
But you're not always in the way
You can make it through this fire

Time for music
I'm feeling your reflection
I'm always in the way
Time for music
I'm feeling your reflection
I'm always in the way

All I every hear you say
Is that you're always in the way
But you're not always in the way

All I every hear you say
Is that you're always in the way
But you're not always in the way
