

Complex Heart

Never Shout Never

I just want to go home
This road's so cold
And I'm all alone
I've got my friends
But they don't know
I've lost my soul
I'm made of stone

I'm just so tired
Nothing is real
I lost my love
To the complex inside me
I was so mean to a girl
Who loved me unconditionally
Is it so wrong,
Is it so wrong
To be in love?
And oh,
Is it so wrong,
Is it so wrong
To be in love,
To be in love?
I don't know.

Face your heart to the door
You fooled them once
But now you're sure
This cold, dark road
Is all you know
You've got no soul
You're made of stone

I'm just so tired
Nothing is real
I lost my love
To the complex inside me
I was so mean to a girl
Who loved me unconditionally
Is it so wrong,
Is it so wrong
To be in love?
And oh,
Is it so wrong,
Is it so wrong
To be in love,
To be in love?
I don't know

What to do anymore
The complex heart
Calls the shots
I'm just a part in it's game
The complex heart
Makes me so tired
Makes this too real
I lost my love
To the complex inside me

I was so mean
To a girl
Who loved me unconditionally

Is it so wrong,
Is it so wrong
To be in love?
And oh,
Is it so wrong,
Is it so wrong,
To be in love,
To be in love?
I don't know.
