

Lust

Never Shout Never

I've been so disinterested in love
These modern times evaporated any chance for trust
To live a fool or die alone
To say goodbye or be disowned
Make a choice or live inside the gray

I know everybody knows
Everybody knows it takes time
To figure it out

I've been so preoccupied with lust
The rush it takes me over
Then it leaves me more fucked up
To be a perv or be a prude
To make false love or push on through
Trusting that she really does exist

The one you heard about
When you were still a child
Don't give up just yet
You still got so much time
To figure it out

I've been so unsatisfied with touch
See I've kissed 7 thousand women
Yet I still can't get enough
To have some fun or sleep alone
To hit the bars or just go home
Make your choice or live inside the gray
I'm okay

I just wanna fall in love
I just wanna fall in love
I just wanna fall in love
I just wanna fall in love
