

How Could I Survive

Neverending White Lights

Couldn't she write the song of my life
I feel it today it all goes away
I know we can't pretend to go on
Taking her time not to realize
That something is gone, my feelings are wrong
Oh no we can't pretend to go on

She can take me to the sky
Intoxicate me with her eyes
How will I survive

I've waited for dawn to bring her praise
A heart that once was a newer mistake
I know we can't pretend to go on

She can bring me to the sky
Intoxicate me with her eyes
How will I survive?
How will I?
