

Waking up on the bathroom floor
Try to stand and grab the door
It's almost the same procedure every sunday
Walking out, go way too far
Don't remember where I parked my car
It's almost the same procedure every sunday

If this is what life has to offer for me
I might as well go back inside
And fall asleep

Nanana...

Go to work and I'm late again
Forgot my keys so I can't come in
It's almost the same procedure every monday

Coming home to my empty place
Watch tv as I count the days
It's almost the same procedure every monday

It feels like my life
Is stuck on repeat
I might as well go back inside
And fall asleep

Nanana...

(And fall asleep x2)

I'm far from the answer,
To the question I forgot.
I pretend I know it all,
But all I know is what I'm not.

I'm far from the answer,
To the question I forgot.
I pretend I know enough,
But all I know is what I'm not.

If this is what life has to offer for me.
I might as well go back inside...
And fall asleep!

Nanana...

(And fall asleep!)
