

It'll Be Alright

New Buffalo

This time it's not about you
So tired but what can you do?
Last night I wanted to say move on
Look on the brighter side
But your eyes never seem to open
There's a whole world outside
See them try to tell you
It'll be alright
Did not think you'd leave it this long
Work hard or maybe you've got nothing to say
Please call I'm begging you to
Forgot I never got back to you
And your eyes never seem to open
There's a whole world outside
See them try to tell you
It'll be alright
And when you're all alone

You catch your breath
You save yourself
You save yourself
It's easy if you'd only tried
It's easy
But your eyes never seem to open
There's a whole world outside
See them try to tell you
It'll be alright
I thought you'd call
I thought you'd changed
But why expect oh so much from your friends
I know who you are
And you know who I am
Is that not enough?
