

Brainless

New Eden

In these heartless times, the blood will flow
Pave our streets, taint our gold, define our name
Now the shameless rise, they claim the crown
Dressed as fools, with plastic smiles:
We all bow down!!!!

In a moment's time, it all can fade
Dissipate, evaporate, leave no trace
Save all will you save all that is you
Take a stance, take a chance, while you still stand

No more crying - To the skies
Bare your arms, hold it down reclaim the crown
No more waiting - Take it now
Brainless minds, keep the gates, giving all away

Mindless brains: brainless minds
Simple minds with complex lives
Mindless brains: brainless minds
