

Unlock The Door

New Eden

Beyond the illusion I AM the only truth you will find
Leave all the lies behind you come fill your eyes with my light
I AM the ever present fire I can fulfill your destiny

Though you've chosen to be blind and in darkness lost your way Though you've called the dark sublime I have come to seek your face
I am calling out your name

Unlock the door let me enter
Unlock the door let me atone

Beyond the illusion I AM the only truth you will find
I came in my due season and I have paid the price for thee
I AM the only reason you need I have fulfilled all prophecies

Though you've chosen to be blind and in darkness lost your way
Though you've called the dark sublime I have come to seek your
face
I am calling out your name

Unlock the door let me restore
