

Humpin' Around

New Edition

When you trust someone
And you know you're on their back
You ain't got no trusting about you
And you claim that you

Don't care what where I'm at
You've given me reason to doubt you
Say you trust someone
Why are you calling all around

Think I've got some dip on the side
Girl you don't trust no one
And you're constantly in doubt
You lose the game, if you play that way

Get up off my back save a heart attack
Ain't nobody humpin' around
(Ain't nobody humpin' around)
No matter what they say, no it ain't that way
Ain't nobody humpin' around

Nobody, nobody, nobody
Nobody, nobody humpin' around babe

When you love someone
And you want to love them right
Got to get more lovin' about you
And you know that you're holding on too tight

Soon they will be leaving without you
Say that you love someone
Why are you calling all my friends
Thinking I've got something to hide

Girl you don't love no one
You don't know what love's all about
You lose the game, if you play that way
(If you)

Get up off my back save a heart attack
Ain't nobody humpin' around
(Ain't nobody humpin' around)
No matter what they say, no it ain't that way
Ain't nobody humpin' around

Nobody, nobody, nobody, nobody
Nobody, nobody humpin' around babe

Girl if you trust someone you don't call on everybody
Ain't nobody foolin' around and the more I think about it
You lose all your clout and
You lose the game, baby, if you play that way

Get up off my back save a heart attack
Ain't nobody humpin' around
(Ain't nobody humpin' around)
No matter what they say, no it ain't that way

Ain't nobody humpin' around

Girl you said you love me and you said you trust me
Why do you think I'm foolin' around
I can't stand the pressure you know I'm yours forever
Ain't nobody, nobody, humpin' around
