Stare at You

New Kids on the Block

I still get lost, caught in a daze, Tongue tied, just like the very first day

I saw you and I'm so amazed 'Cause the look that got me twisted still hasn't changed

Your sexy eyes never lie, Baby, I lose myself (when they open) Girl, forget about goin' out Baby, I'd rather not (so, I'm hoping)

R: I could just stare at you forever (oh, baby) I can be here with you doing whatever (my lady) It's not the way you look that brings me to my knees, It's the way you look at me I could just stare at you forever If forever you were staring at me

What do you see? I can't figure it out You're talking to my heart without making a sound I can't lose when I'm caught in your eyes (I feel like superman) got me up in the sky

Your sexy eyes never lie Baby, I lose my ground (you're so gorgeous, oh) Girl, forget about goin' out Baby, I want you now

R:

Baby, keep the lights on I'm gonna stare at you all night long And we'll keep rocking 'till the sun shines Waiting 'till the moonlight to do it again

R:
