

My heart is yours and there is no choice
Your way is life and your heart beats for me
The cross was mine but you laid down
Your precious life that I might hear you calling

Now the greatest gift of love
Never will be lost for I'm returning
Now the prize I could not pay
Was given when you gave your son, most worthy
I will lift my voice again

Worthy, worthy is the lamb for sinner sake
Worthy, worthy, I will lift my voice again
My voice again

Now the greatest gift of love
Never will be lost for I'm returning
Now the prize I could not pay
Was given when you gave your son, most worthy
I will lift my voice again

Worthy, worthy is the lamb for sinner sake
Jesus you are worthy, worthy, I will lift my voice again
I will lift my voice again
I will lift my voice again
