Who is this man
That follows me
This blue eyed boy
Who wants to be

This worthy cause
Of human kind
This pawn set up by time

Like a bright light on the horizon Shining so bright, he'll get you flying He'll drive you away, he'll drive you insane But then he'll remove all of your pain

Like a bright light on the horizon Shining so bright, he'll get you flying He'll get you flying, he'll get you flying He'll get you flying, flying, flying

This open book Yet to be read This second look This leap ahead

The hope I held inside With you, was kept alive

Like a bright light on the horizon Shining so bright, he'll get you flying He'll drive you away, he'll drive you insane But then he'll remove all of your pain

Like a bright light on the horizon Shining so bright, He'll get you flying He'll get you flying, He'll get you flying He'll get you flying, flying, flying

We're here to stay
