Touched by the Hand of God

New Order

I was standing by the ocean when I saw your face I couldn't look at you I guess you knew it but I never realized That we were through

And now I'm down here all alone With every feeling that I own You can't take that away

And with every breath we take And the illusions we create Will come to you someday

And I was touched By the hand of God Never knew it But of course I was

I never hoped to do the things in this world I wanted to Because everything I own It belongs to you

I never looked at you in a sexual way In my life before And I've never woken up like this So desperately before

And I was touched By the hand of God Never knew it But of course I was

I was touched
By the hand of God
Never knew it
But of course I was

Touched
By the hand of God
Never knew it
But of course I was

I was touched
By the hand of God
Never knew it
But of course I was
