

I Don't Wanna Die Anymore

New Radicals

Two months of fun
two years of pain
Add it up, I get a life of rain
I need to scream, but too ashamed

I'm gonna rain, I'm gonna rain
You wanna go, you wanna stay, you wanna you really blew my world
I wanna live and there's only one way

I don't wanna die anymore
I want to live it up
I don't want this high anymore
but I can't give it up
I won't live a lie anymore
I need to give you up

Won't you save me
Two months of sun
A life of rain
Add it up, I'm on my own again
Need to scream
I'm so filled with rage

It's gonna rain, It's gonna rain
You wanna go, you wanna stay, you wanna you really screwed my world
I gotta live, but you stand in the way
I'm pullin out now

I don't wanna die anymore
I want to live it up
I don't want this high anymore
but I can't give it up
I won't live a lie anymore
I need to give you up

And, oh baby, did you thing that I was strong?
Oh baby, can't you see that you were wrong?
Oh honey, did you thing that I was strong?

I don't wanna die anymore
I want to live it up
I don't want this high anymore
but I can't give it up
I won't live a lie anymore
I need to give you, give you, give you...

Oh baby, did you thing that I was strong?
Oh honey, can't you see that you were wrong?
Oh baby, did you thing that I was strong?

(Oh baby, did you thing that I was strong?
Oh honey, can't see that you were wrong?)
