

Fabulous Rant

New York Dolls

They had it so nice where they were The streets were clean, everybody was, like,
"How d'ya do? How d'ya do?"
Then they come to New York where we're like "Who gives a fuck"
and they want to change it
It really pisses me off so that's what this song is about
And, the clothes they wear, you don't look at them while they're making the rules
