

We Are Forgiven

newworldson

You're one of those people who sided with evil and built yourself up by putting others down
You were discouraged, the day you found courage to mend your wicked ways and turn your life around
You said: "how can I be sure that I won't fall again from grace and why should I deserve to even be here in this place?"
In this life we're all living, we are forgiven, we are forgiven all

The power and glory
I'll tell you a story
It starts way back in time with a girl that I once knew
She was unhappy, she left her daddy and she moved out on the streets and did just what she had to do
Then an angel came one night and brushed her cheek so soft
He gave her money but he begged her not to take it off
In this life we're all living, we are forgiven, we are forgiven all

The rain falls on the wicked and the righteous and every day the sun wakes up to light us
And that's just the way it is
