

Beautiful For Me

Nichole Nordeman

Every girl young and old has to face her own reflection
Twirl around, stare it down
What's the mirror gonna say
With some luck, you'll measure up
But you might not hold a candle to the rest
"Is that your best?" says the mirror to Little Miss

But there's a whisper in the noise
Can you hear a little voice
And He says

Has anybody told you you're beautiful?
You might agree if you could see what I see oh
'Cuz everything about you is incredible
You should have seen me smile the day that I made you beautiful
for me

If it's true beauty lies
In the eye of the beholder
I want my life and what's inside
To give Him something to behold

I want a heart that's captivating
I wanna hear my Father saying...

Has anybody told you you're beautiful?
You might agree if you could see what I see oh
'Cuz everything about you is incredible
You should have seen me smile the day that I made you beautiful
for me

Close your eyes, look inside
Let me see the you that you've been trying to hide
Long ago, I made you so very beautiful
So I ought to know you're beautiful

Has anybody told you you're beautiful?
You might agree if you could see what I see yeah
'Cuz everything about you is incredible
You should have seen me smile the day that I made you beautiful
You're so beautiful
Beautiful for me
So beautiful for me
Has anybody told you?
