

Little Big Dreamer

Nick Lachey

You could be an astronaut
A doctor, lawyer, traffic cop
You could build a house with your bare hands
You could be a fireman
Maybe one day president
Or you could sing songs just like your old man

When you close your eyes somehow you know
Anything is possible
Anything you want you can be

So sleep well my little big dreamer
The whole world is yours tonight
And dreamers can fly
So reach for the sky
Here's one last kiss
Now sleep well my little big dreamer

You can climb the Eiffel Tower
Just use one of your super powers
You can travel faster than a plane
You could win a Golden Globe
Quarterback the Super Bowl
You can be a cowboy racing trains

When you close your eyes somehow you know
Anything is possible
Anything you want you can be

So sleep well my little big dreamer
The whole world is yours tonight
And dreamers can fly
So reach for the sky
Here's one last kiss
Now sleep well my little big dreamer, oh

Now sleep well my little big dreamer
The whole world is yours tonight
Dreamers can fly
So reach for the sky
Here's one last kiss
Now sleep well my little big dreamer, oh

I wonder where you're going tonight
What kind of dreams are taking flight
What's going on behind those sleepy eyes
