

Let Me Feel

Nicky Romero

If only time could disappear
We would be this way until the end (yeah)

'Cause the speed of sound can hit when we would miss.
Without our heart and soul we don't exist
No, we don't exist...

So let me see, let me feel
Let me breathe you without a sound
It's the only thing I'm waking up for now, up for now
Let me see, let me feel,
Let me breathe you without a sound
It's the only thing I'm waking up for now, up for now.

If only I could hear you say that in a little while
You and I would meet (yeah)

'Cause the speed of sound can hit when we're missed.
Without our heart and soul we don't exist
No, we don't exist...

So let me see, let me feel
Let me breathe you without a sound
It's the only thing I'm waking up for now, up for now
Let me see, let me feel,
Let me breathe you without a sound
It's the only thing I'm waking up for now, up for now
