

I'm Broken but fearless got nothing left to lose i'm Trying to climb the steps

I'm looking for the truth
The house that's made of glass is breaking
The world that I knew is caving in
And gravel on my feet is shaking

But this is the moment
When I turn my life around
This is the moment
Oh Oh Ohh
The Moment
Oh Oh Ohh
The Moment

I'm burnt out like a craze
I'm crawling to the door
So let me live another way
I'm needing something more

The house that's made of glass is breaking
The world that I knew is caving in
And gravel on my feet is shaking

But this is the moment
When I turn my life around
This is the moment
I won't let life tear me down
I've got nothing left then my beating heart

I've found my way out of the dark
This is the moment
Oh Oh Ohh
The Moment
Oh Oh Ohh
The Moment
