

Take Me

Nicky Romero

The devil kicks the angel from my shoulder
Says let's have some fun
You can get your share of sleeping when you're older Boy, the night is young
He said think of all the temptations that's waiting for you in the dark
Oh, I'm trying, I'm trying, my best to be good
But lord, it's getting hard

Take me to the heaven I know
Where the angels all dance
And the neon cross glows
Take me to the alter tonight
Go and bathe me in the water
Drown me in the light

Feeling all my good intentions fading with the setting sun
I'm trying to fight my demons, but the truth is they've already won
I'll pay the price tomorrow for the crazy things I do tonight, yeah
What is it about this time tonight, that makes these wrong things feel so right
Right, right, right

Take me to the heaven I know
Where the angels all dance
And the neon cross glows
Take me to the alter tonight
Go and bathe me in the water
Drown me in the light

Take me to the heaven I know
I know, I know, I know
