

Goodnight Rhonda Lee

Nicole Atkins

I see you laughing but you're laughing too loud
I tried to find you, you were lost in the crowd
Girl you kill me
I understand don't you see?
Say goodnight, say goodnight, say goodnight
Say goodnight Rhonda Lee

You take the windows, paint them midnight blue
You're holding on tight to a life you outgrew
How many times can I remind you to breath?
Say goodnight, say goodnight, say goodnight
Say goodnight Rhonda Lee

The sky is falling, make sure everyone knows
When they stop listening, that's just the way that it goes
Don't let it crush ya
Change don't come easily
Say goodnight, say goodnight, say goodnight
Say goodnight Rhonda Lee

Say goodnight, say goodnight, say goodnight
Say goodnight Rhonda Lee

Say goodnight, say goodnight, say goodnight
Say goodnight Rhonda Lee
