

A Song For You

Nicole C. Mullen

No matter if the crowds are gone curtains drawn if no one knows my name and if I'm forgotten by the whole world wide

I will tell you, what I do, as long as there is, still one breath in me there always will be,
one more song for you like no one is listening we down to just the two, if you want to hear it, I will sing it from my spirit for you; eh, eh, For you oh..yeah, yeah,

Cause whether I'm rich or poor, young or old, infamous or faint and whether I'm in distress, over blessed I'll love you and I'll serve you as long as there is still one breath in me they'll always will be one song for you like no one is listening we down to just the two, if you want to hear it, I will sing it from my spirit for you;

Alleluia, alleluia
Alleluia, alleluia

one more song for you like no one listening we down to just the two, if you want to hear it, I will sing it from my spirit for you;
eh, eh, For you oh..yeah, yeah,

Alleluia, alleluia
Alleluia, alleluia

Jesus, for you, for you!!
