

Greater Still

Nicole C. Mullen

As high as the heavens
As deep as the oceans wide
As far as the eastest
From the west plus a trillion miles

Your love, your love, is greater still!
Your love, Your love, is greater still!

I've walked through the valleys
And I've seen the shadows form
I sang in the darkness
Til' victory turned once more

Your love, your love, is greater still!
Your love, Your love, is greater still!

I've been kissed by Judahs
Held tightly by herbs and scars
I've wrestled retention
Abandon to rise no more

And Your love, your love, is greater still!
Oh! Your love, Your love, is greater still!

I will rejoice [x8]

Of all of the wonders
And every throne of man
Of all that a treasure
Oh! Nothing can quite compare

And Your love, your love, is greater still!
Oh! Your love, Your love, is greater still!

I will rejoice!

I've made, I've made the choice
And I will rejoice
I've made, I've made the choice
And I will rejoice
In the good or bad
The happy or the sad
I will, I choose to rejoice
I choose love again
I choose hope again
I choose joy again
