

Dream Of Summer Days

Nicotine

Sunday morning
I wake up at sunrise
I was my face hard
For my first date
At the station she ignores me
To my face she just says goodbye

In your life time
Will you have the same scene
That I came across this time?
What will you do if
You are told "Goodbye"
When you want somebody to love?

My love life ended all at once
I haven't found the reason yet

Everyday I dream of summer days
My broken heart aches
I do still feel so bad
Everynight I pray
For a cloudy sky
I'll never cry again
I may have found my answer

I go walking
For a long long way
To meet someone that I need

In broad daylight
I want to scream aloud
I was born to love this woman
Everybody, why do you ignore me?
Out in public they
Kill their emotions

In your life time
Will you have the same scene
That I came across this time?
What will you do if you are Told "You don't fit!"
When you want
Somebody to love?
