

Fall into You

Night Terrors of 1927

It heat up, it rattles
In winter, in battles
The ice thaws, the shadows
??

Brought you a present
A cursing, a blessing
A brand new obsession
Another rule of truth

There is so much to say
So much I can relate
I'm losing touch with fate
I wanna fall into you

I wanna heal your sins
I'll stop where you begin
I'm trading myself in
I wanna fall into you

I wanna fall into you
I wanna fall into you
I wanna fall into you
I wanna fall into you

A matter the damage
Fall back to patterns
Picked up a habit
Need to be abused

Left string devalues
To high minds to whole truths
From bad blood to bad news
And everyone we lose

There is so much to say
So much I can relate
I'm losing touch with fate
I wanna fall into you

I wanna heal your sins
I'll stop where you begin
I'm trading myself in
I wanna fall into you

I wanna fall into you
I wanna fall into you
I wanna fall into you
I wanna fall into you

Lean back to my arms
Stay close just stay calm
I'm scared just like you
I wanna fall into you

I wanna fall into you

I wanna fall into you
I wanna fall into you
