

Never One to Complain

Night Terrors of 1927

She was never one to complain
She felt it from the beginning
Daddy wasn't ready, for his world to come on down
But my mama let me, into this world and one
She was never one to complain

Looooooooooooooooost
Taste it all from memories
Make us sense a broken dream
Fouuuuuuuuuuund
Holding to one belief
Hoping it'll set her free

She always wanted to act scared
Someday i'll be ready
To get this damage undone
Somewhere and i'll just let myself get

Looooooooooooooooost
Taste it all from memories
Raising all the broken dreams
Fouuuuuuuuuuund
Holding on to one belief
Hoping it'll set her free

Looooooooooooooooost

Fouuuuuuuuuuuuund

What once lost can now be found
You were the lost but now you found
What once lost can now be found
We were the lost but now we found

What once lost can now be found
You were the lost but now we found
What once lost can now be found
We were the lost but now we found
