As Your God Is Failing Once Again

Nightfall

As dark's light being faded And my black turns into day My thoughts return into the grave Of my mind's darkest shade

As a slave I've never prayed
To the so called "God" of light
I've never seen a soul to be saved
I won't beg him as I die
As I kill the worm upon the ground
As it eats your ruins underground
Your God shall I eat, bit and kill
His warm blood as it comes, my throat to sink

Pray, pray...

My hatred drawned as my sword slashes The flesh, giving birth to pain, the end of The beginning, the end of life's pride Of love in hate

Seek, sink deep and deeper, I drink it The blood, it flows, lies on my mighty face Harmonies in dust, brainstorm of fearless

It's mine... thy head...

Son of fire, I was born in hate, in misery I'm the grand one, the rapist, unholy Doomed to ride as the moon sings...

The song of glory in my sword, in my soul
