

I know the wires inside
Separate and steal my thoughts in the night
Around and around I'm so sick of the thought
Of acting like I care just to bare this cross

Feeling too weak now
To get through you somehow

The time we wasted won't save us
I'd walk away if you give me directions
But I know you know
I've got to let go
You reap what you sow

I always feel the rain pouring over my bed
I was told forgive myself, but I'm in over my head
Someone make this stop
I can't go on for long
I'm sick of watching the clock

The time we wasted won't save us
I'd walk away if you give me directions
But I know you know
I've got to let go
You reap what you sow

The time we wasted won't save us
(I'd walk away if you would)
(I'd walk away if you would)
The time we wasted won't save us
(I'd walk away if you would)
(I'd walk away if you would)

Time has passed me by
When will I realize there is nothing more?

The time we wasted won't save us
I'd walk away if you give me directions
But I know you know
I've got to let go
You reap what you sow

The time we wasted won't save us
(I'd walk away if you would)
(I'd walk away if you would)
The time we wasted won't save us
(I'd walk away if you would)
(I'd walk away if you would)
